NEWS FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL

Commemoration of the Centenary of the end of World War I

On Sunday 11 November at 7pm we will be lighting the beacon situated on the village green opposite the Castle, to mark the centenary of the end of World War I. This is a countrywide initiative, and we will be proud to be a part of it. There will be some readings, and an army cadet will play the Last Post. We hope you will be able to join us to remember the huge sacrifice made by so many during World War I and conflicts since.

Parking and Traffic Issues

The Parish Council is in the process of discussing the parking and traffic issues in Orford. From early next year the police will be handing over all powers of traffic enforcement to the county council, who will in turn will hand the powers down to Suffolk Coastal District Council. This basically means that SCDC will be responsible for enforcing all traffic and parking restrictions and handing out appropriate fines. Having spoken to the head of civil parking enforcement it seems that they will be very keen on handing out fines, as all the money will go direct into their coffers for reinvestment in the area. From these discussions it has become very apparent that we need to be thinking about a whole-village strategy, so we don't move the problem from one area to another. It is also important to be thinking for the future and not just tomorrow.

As always, rumours having been flying about. All discussions are in the VERY early stages and at this point we are chatting through all possible or impossible options. NOTHING has been decided. Before any decisions are made there will be a full consultation with you all to get your feedback.

You will have noticed the Parish Council has paid for 2 new signs to be put up on the road around the church, to warn drivers about pedestrians in the road. Having spent a little bit of time watching the cars the signs do seem to be working and slowing the traffic down a bit. Hopefully this will aid in making that area of the village a little bit safer.

Fido Bins

We have also paid to have 2 new dog Fido (Poo!) bins, one at the top of Doctors Drift and one on the footpath near Town Farm Estate.

Mobile Phone Mast

Finally, the ongoing saga of the mobile phone mast. Despite my best efforts I have been unable to get a response from 02 at the time of writing this! My best advice is for as many of you as possible to write or email (or phone!!) and complain directly to 02 – I will keep trying too!

Next month there will be details on the Christmas Carols and all other festivities!

Michelle Golder, Chairman Orford and Gedgrave Parish Council

ORFORDNESS MEMORIAL

You may have noticed that the Orfordness Memorial has now been installed on the flagpole plinth at Orford Quay. The late Paddy Heazell researched the history of the Ness (Island) from 1913 when the MOD purchased the site, and in 2010 published a book Most Secret – the Hidden History of Orford Ness. He suggested the idea of a memorial to those whose work assisted the 1914-18 and 1939-45 war effort as well as benefiting civilian life. After Paddy's untimely death in 2013, the National Trust took on the fundraising for the project and the memorial was designed and made by Charlotte Howarth.

The Centenary of the end of the First World War

My dear friends, I find it hard to find words adequate to the enormity of this commemoration: words to express the horror and city of war in general, and World War I in particular. Three quarters of a million were killed, from Britain alone, mostly young men, and many more bereaved and injured in body and mind, the latter often unable to speak of their experiences. I am reading 'Fierce Imaginings – The Great War, Ritual, Memory and God' by Rachel Mann (DLT, London, 2017). It meditates on Remembrance today, using her own family's experiences, culture, war poetry and literature, and faith. She says that 'the only response – the only way of trying to articulate war is, ironically, silence' (page 146). Hence the two-minute silence we keep. She writes of how Christian nations fighting each other questioned our understanding of God: shifting emphasis from a patriarchal, imperialistic God ordering history to a God who, in Christ suffers with us. At the heart of Christian faith is an instrument of torture and the shameful death of an innocent young man. Yet the cross was not the final word: rather it shows how God takes death into God's loving self. The Risen Lord offers not revenge but reconciliation, peace and new possibility.

Some commemorative events around the Peninsula Team Ministry

Sunday 11 November 10.45am, Remembrance Sunday Services at Orford and St Gregory, Rendlesham. At Orford, our Guest Preacher will be The Very Revd Dr Christopher Lewis, who served in the Royal Navy before Ordination, was my Doctrine and personal Tutor at Theological College, and latterly Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford, before retiring to Aldeburgh.

Also on Sunday 11 November, 3-4pm Tunstall Church 'Bringing the boys back home'. Lifesize sculptures of the fallen, photos, music, reflections and afternoon tea.

Thursday 8 November 11am. The Royal British Legion lay crosses on War Graves at Orford and Sudbourne.

Throughout November: Armistice 100, exhibition at Alderton Church, refreshments available on 3, 4, 10 and 17 November.

'At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, We will remember them.'

NOVEMBER AT ORFORD METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday 4 November 10.30am Stephen Caley – Soup & Pud Lunch

Sunday 11 November REMEMBRANCE
10.30am Stephen Caley

Sunday 18 November 10.30am Rev Stephen Yelland

Sunday 25 November 10.30am Rev Martin Dawes – Communion

Sunday 2 December ADVENT SUNDAY
10.30am Stephen Caley – Soup & Pud Lunch

As usual the MONDAY TEA ROOM will be open, now with winter hours of 11am–2pm(ish). A varied lunch menu always available with coffee, tea, scones and cake too! Also available, cards, crafts, art/paintings and preserves. Come and visit us, no need to book.

WEDNESDAY LUNCH is served at 12.30pm – you are welcome to join with us, however, you will need to book your meal.

First Sunday of the month Soup & Pud lunch got off to a great start on 7 October for the Autumn/Winter. This popular part of after church fellowship is really enjoyed.

Wednesday Lunch celebrated its 19th year – yes, 19 years since we commenced our regular Wednesday Lunch sessions - where have the years gone? A delicious 'roast' lunch and tempting desert was enjoyed by all. Everyone shared the 'birthday cake' and went home clutching a box of chocolates – well, you can't go home from a party empty handed! The staff was presented with a signed card and framed plaque in recognition of the 19 years. Our many thanks to Dave Parnell who designed, created and printed the plaque which will hang in the Wesley Room.

Poppy Festival – we will report on this in next month's issue – suffice to say at the time of printing the November addition, sales of knitted poppies, over a wide, are exceeding supply!

ORFORD MUSEUM NEWS

Orford Museum Talk

On Saturday 10 November 2018 there will be a talk in Orford Town Hall entitled 'M.R James' East Anglia'. The talk will be given by Dr. Richard Hoggett, a freelance heritage consultant, writer and lecturer specialising in the historic landscape of East Anglia who has already given several very enjoyable, interesting and informative talks to the Friends of Orford Museum and guests. The evening will start at 6.00pm with a complimentary glass of wine and the talk will start at 6.30pm. Entrance is £5.00 for Friends of Orford Museum and £7.00 for guests.

M.R James is best known as the writer of some of the finest ghost stories ever published and was also the foremost medieval scholar of his day with a strong academic and personal interest in East Anglia's landscape and history. This lecture examines James' East Anglian connections from his childhood in Suffolk to his involvement with excavations at St. Edmund's Abbey in Bury and looks at the influence which the region had on the development of his ghost stories.

In Memoriam

In commemoration of the armistice of WWI in November 1918, we are exhibiting in Orford Church a selection of the biographies of the men who fell in that terrible war and who are listed on the memorials in the churches of Orford, Boyton, Butley, Chillesford, Iken and Sudbourne. These biographies were compiled by Brian Boulton and first exhibited at the WWI exhibition in Orford Town Hall organised by Orford Museum in 2014. There are 83 of them in total and we hope to rotate the display so that as many as possible can be seen over the next few months.

DOREEN LONGHURST

Sadly, the village lost one of its most senior members this autumn when Doreen Longhurst (née Draper) aged 92, passed away peacefully in her seventeenth-century home in Church Street, where she was born and spent most of her life. The family would like to thank all those who showed such kindness to her during the years, especially after her husband, Tom, passed away in 2009 and her health began to fail. Many have reminisced on her friendliness and sense of humour and this has been a great comfort to us.

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

Sharon and Tracy would like to thank all those who supported their charity coffee morning held on Saturday 29 September. A special thank you to all who helped on the day, and to those who donated items for the day and such lovely cakes – we had lots of compliments on the great tasting cakes.

The sun shone, making it a perfect day to sit outdoors with a cuppa and chat with friends and family whilst raising money for such a great cause. We raised an amazing £900 on the day and the total is still rising. Thanks again to everyone.

GARDENING CLUB:

Next event: Colour Theory for Gardeners

Speaker: Neill Ludmon, freelance and runs courses for Woottens and Crocus

Venue: Orford Town Hall, Back room

Date and time: Thursday 1 November

Neill will be known to many of you, as a speaker in past years, particularly on 'Grasses' recently. He also ran our very successful workshop earlier this year on 'Border Design and Planting'. He was a lecturer at the well-known Capel Manor in Enfield until fairly recently and then moved to Suffolk to enjoy our way of life here. We are very fortunate to have him close by. Neill will speak to us about colour theory and how we can use it to develop and enhance our gardens and outside spaces in so many ways.

EVERYONE WELCOME!

Eric Mason Shield Competition

At this event we will also be holding the third and final competition. Let's keep up the momentum and give the members who currently have the most points a 'run for their money'.

It is: A Photo of Autumn Colours to be judged by Neill

Coming next:

AGM (short and to the point) and Social Evening Supper on Thursday 6 December – always great fun! Members only.

Taster for the 2019 Programme being developed: The Apothecary's Garden, Salvias, Shade Loving Plants, Sweet Peas...

ST BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

Saturday 8 December 2018 from 2pm

The popular annual Christmas bazaar will be held in the Church from 2pm on Saturday 8 December, with 80% of the proceeds for the Church Fabric and 20% going to the Thomas Marshall Education Fund. Always a great start to Christmas. Come along with your family and friends and have some fun on the bottle tombola, the raffle and 'Guess the weight of the cake', and grab bargains galore from the Bric-a-Brac and Book Stalls. Pick up those 'must have' gifts from the Christmas Stall which will be full of edible Christmas goodies and other Christmas fare.

Refresh yourselves with delicious mulled wine, mince pies, teas and cakes and listen to Nick Raison playing your seasonal favourites on the piano.

Raffle prizes, cakes, mince pies, bottles for the bottle tombola and any items and books (no cookery or gardening) of good quality that you can offer to be sold would be greatly appreciated.

For a change, there will be a Puzzle Stall instead of the usual toy stall so we will be grateful for any jigsaw puzzles or indeed any other type of puzzle!

All items can be brought to the Church on the Friday afternoon (7 December) and on the morning of the bazaar, or alternatively contact the people below or Wendy Marshall on 01394 450090 Look forward to seeing you all on Saturday 8 December!

NOVEMBER AT THE KING'S HEAD

As the winter starts to draw in we are pleased to welcome you all to The King's Head, with the wood burner roaring and an equally warm welcome. With the shorter daylight hours comes our winter opening hours, which are:

Monday	Closed All Day
Tues to Thurs	Bar 12 to 3pm	Food	12 to 2.30pm
	Bar 5.30pm to 10.30pm	Food	6pm to 9pm
Fri & Sat	Bar 12 to 11.30pm	Food	12 to 2.30pm
		Food	6pm to 9pm
Sunday	Bar 12 to 6pm	Food	12 to 3pm

What a busy October we have had – with several new events. Quiz Night, run by Simon & Sue Hunt was a good fun evening of brain taxing - congratulations to the winning team of Fortune & Friends. Our first ever kitchen take over was a huge success with Hay Hay putting on a fantastic Eastern Mediterranean spread as a Fringe Event of the Aldeburgh Food & Drink Festival. Who'd have thought – a play in the boozier? Horses! Horses!, A satirical comedy about Johnny, the landlord of The Nag's Head, was brilliantly performed by The Wassail Theatre Company. Musically we had the place bouncing – with Steve Boyce showing what a great guitarist and vocalist he is and another fantastic Steven Lay Open Mic Night displaying the talent in the local area.

Sadly, in October we lost two of our regular customers Kate Steel and John Thacker, our thoughts and sincere condolences go to all their family and friends.

November has a few events arranged for your enjoyment:

- Thursday 8 November – Quiz Night – PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A WEEK LATER THAN SCHEDULED. £1 per head to enter – winners take all and get to set the January Quiz.
- Saturday 17 November – Live Music – Peter Hepworth. Anyone who came to Suffolk Day will remember him opening the performance by singing Life on the Deben, a capella, until his guitar arrived. A firm favourite with the Orford audience and a real entertainer.
- Wednesday 28 November – Festive Feast – Ideas to Eat & Drink. We welcome back Slate Cheese & Provisions and Adnams Cellar & Kitchen from Aldeburgh. A chance to sample and enjoy some different items under the expertise of these great presenters. Anyone who has attended the previous ones will tell you how professional and interesting they are. Book your space early to avoid disappointment. Only £20 per head.
- Friday 30 November – Steven Lay Open Mic Night. Always a spectacular evening of local talent entertaining us under the majestic control of Steven Lay. Always a popular night and fun for all.

As always, The King's Head team thank you for your continued support and look forward to seeing you in the near future.

ORFORD CRAFT CENTRE

Christmas is already in full flow at Orford Craft Centre, with a huge and varied range of products made by our Suffolk craftworkers. You will be pleased to know that we have just had a new delivery of hobby horses from Stablemates, ideal presents for youngsters to gallop off some of that energy. We are also pleased to say that from time to time you will be greeted by a new face, helping Tre and Daphne, will be Sharon Vincent.

With its past record of being a good place to purchase baskets we have quite a wide and varied stock available. If we don't have the one you are looking for please let us know and we will try to source it for you. Please remember the baskets are the only products not made in Suffolk.

FIRST CHRISTMAS MARKET – Sunday 9 December – 10am til 2pm

We are delighted to announce that we will be holding our first Christmas Market in front of the Craft Centre on Sunday 9 December between 10am and 2pm. Many of our wonderful craftworkers will be having stalls. An ideal place to do your present shopping. In addition, we hope to have mulled drinks and hot sausages being sold. And all with the background of the sounds of Christmas tunes. All you need to get you in the mood for the festive season.

There is space for a few more stalls – so even if you don't supply us and are a Suffolk based craft worker and would like to have a stall please contact us to book your space.

Exhibitions in The Old Hayloft continue:

26 October to 3 November – Simon Turner

Locally based in Yoxford, Simon uses mainly the media of acrylic and wood to produce stunning sea and landscapes, inspired by the Suffolk

Coast. Having exhibited and other galleries locally we are excited to show his works.

We currently have some availability for The Old Hayloft and if you are a local artist keen to use the space please contact us. Especially with the lead up to Christmas.

Workshops in The Old Hayloft:

EJR Ceramics – Clay Workshops

Emma's workshops continue to be a great success and the popularity is such that she has extended to two dates per month. Second Friday of each month 10am-1pm and fourth Thursday of each month, 2.30pm-5.30pm. The dates leading up to Christmas are Friday 9 and Thursday 22 November and Friday 14 December. Call in to book your space and make your own work of art.

White Cottage Candles – Candle Making Workshop

Thursday 8 November, Sian Adger brings her skills along to help you craft candles. This is an all-day course 10.30am-3pm. Limited spaces to call in to book. Sian is looking at adding extra dates including a Saturday so let us know if you are interested.

Willow Craft – Bespoke Christmas Wreath Workshops

You may have seen the owls, pigs and piglets, dragonflies and more brilliantly crafted by Janet Slattery. Janet is running a workshop between 10am and 1pm on Saturday 8 December to work with you to create your own bespoke Christmas Wreath. Again, places are limited so please book yours early.

The enthusiasm for Suffolk Crafts and involvement seems to be at a fantastic level and we are delighted so many people are supporting the centre and all the activities. If you are a maker or artist and want to get involved just give us a call. Let's hope we have made your Christmas shopping easier this year and you may have even crafted a gift yourself.

THE ALDE & ORE ESTUARY PARTNERSHIP: November Update

The Partnership is waiting for defined costs from the IDB for schemes for both the Upper and Lower Estuary. A public presentation of all finances and an update on fundraising is planned for early February 2019 to allow everyone to view the current situation with regard to consents, scheme plans, finances generally and planned commencement of work. Enabling development plans are on hold until the overall finances have been assessed.

Over the last year fundraising activities have produced over £1.2 million in the bank with additional pledges made of <£1 million. Applications to The Heritage Lottery Fund and other foundations are currently underway. The Funding Group is preparing a calendar of fundraising events for next year which will be available shortly.

Everyone who lives, works or visits the estuary is encouraged to donate however they wish – from £10 to £100,000 – no holds barred – either a one-off payment or staggered over several years. The Estuary Trust looks forward to hearing from you! Visit www.aotruster.org for relevant forms or to contact the Trust if you wish to speak to a Trustee.

If you would like to receive newsletters and press releases please sign up for the newsletter on either of these websites www.aoep.co.uk or www.aotruster.org
